REMINDERS

- We have extra 2017-18 school yearbooks available to purchase in the office for $17.
- Water bottle donations are needed for the Booster Gondola Luncheon held on Oct. 19. Water bottles can be dropped off in the school office.
- Still time to sell and/or purchase your Quick Draw Raffle tickets.
- Oct. 19: No morning/afternoon bus service and no hot lunch as P429 will not be in session.
- Please send all of your Box Tops for Education and empty ink cartridges to school. St. Mary's receives money or classroom items for each of these.
- Mrs. Sartoris is in need of old/used computer mousepads and yoga mats for Art.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE

Student Council is collecting "gently" used or new coats, hats, scarves, and mittens for the Salvation Army. Bins will be located in the office foyer.

BAND AND CHORUS NEWS

Two students will be auditioning for ILMEA All-District Band, Jazz Band, and Chorus on Monday, October 8 at Bloomington Junior High School. Christopher Corrigan will be auditioning for the band and jazz band and Carrington Gray will be auditioning for the chorus. The band members must prepare a scale sheet and an etude for auditions. The jazz band members must prepare a piece of music. The chorus members must sing a scale, major and minor triads, two of five songs they have been practicing and sight read a 2 measure piece. Good luck to the two of you on your audition.

QUICK DRAW UPDATE

Way to go, SMS FAMILIES! To date, the Quick Draw raffle profit is over $11,000! We sincerely appreciate each and every family that sold and/or purchased Quick Draw tickets. Free ticket stubs will be coming home with students this week to each family who sold 10 or more tickets. If you do not receive your free ticket stub and have sold 10 or more Quick Draw tickets, please contact Amanda Lauritsen at lauritsen95@frontier.com. A very special thank you to Katie Wille, who helped us sell 69 tickets through the alumni mailing. Tickets can still be purchased and turned in for the remaining 42 drawings. THANK YOU and GOOD LUCK!
